Harrison County has 385 Utica Shale wells in various stages of activity. To date there are 56 wells that are permitted, 10 that are being drilled, and 41 that are drilled, with 278 that are producing. There are seven operators that have permits. The highest level of production to date took place in 2015. There have been 10,745,556 barrels of oil produced and 204,616,108 million cubic feet of gas produced.

Source: Ohio Department of Natural Resources Department of Oil & Gas Resources (http://oilandgas.ohiodnr.gov/shale)